

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXI.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1894.

NO. 96

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

—Miss Gertrude Lester entertained several of her friends Tuesday evening.

—Rev. Charles E. Nash, editor of the Ky., Baptist, was here last week and preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

—The Johnson Hall will be dedicated next Sunday. This is the new boarding hall erected by the Baptists to be run in connection with the Institute.

—Mr. C. C. Lawson returned from Virginia, where he had been spending several weeks, last Tuesday. Alex. Seveir, of Barbourville, was here Monday and Tuesday.

—The grand jury adjourned Saturday after returning about 175 indictments. No indictments were returned against anyone for hanging the negro last Sunday was a week ago.

—T. L. Bird was in Pineville last week. Rev. L. L. Pickett, of Columbia, S. C., delivered a lecture at the M. E. church Thursday evening on, "Strange Things." Mr. Thos. Barron, of the Herald, is abed this week.

—Judge Morrow left Sunday night for Somerset to attend the funeral of Mrs. Bradley. He returned Tuesday evening. Judge Alcorn occupied the bench while he was absent. The case of Ora May Johnson vs. the L. & N. R. R. was decided Saturday in favor of the defendant. The suit was brought by the infant plaintiff against the defendant for killing her father, April 24, 1890 at Corbin. This county.

—Mr. M. A. Moore is moving his family to Danville, where he will make his future home. Mr. Moore is a native of this county and has always lived here, has been sheriff twice and held various other offices and places of public trust. We dislike to part with him and do not believe he will be satisfied away from his old friends and associates and in a place where the democrats are in the majority.

—Mrs. K. D. Perkins, the wife of our county attorney, died Monday evening at 9:30 o'clock. She had been sick with the pneumonia for over three weeks and had suffered a great deal. She was 31 years old on the 20th of this month and leaves her husband, three little children and an aged father and mother besides a host of other friends to mourn her loss. She was a daughter of Mr. John Boyd, of this county, and a niece of Hon. R. Boyd, late circuit judge of this district. Mrs. Perkins had been a faithful and devoted member of the Christian church for years and her funeral was preached in the Christian church here Wednesday morning by Elder W. D. Rice, of Augusta, Ky., who was a former pastor of this church and a man that she greatly admired. May God's blessing rest upon the husband and he be a mother to the three helpless little children she leaves behind.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—Mr. J. G. Ramsey, formerly of Stanford, died at the home of his mother in Rockcastle, at midnight Monday, of grip, in the 37th year of his age. His remains were brought here Wednesday where they were met by a large concourse of sorrowing friends and conveyed to Buffalo Cemetery where after a short service by Rev. John Bell Gibson, they were placed by the side of his wife, who preceded him to the tomb about 19 months. Mr. Ramsey married Miss Mahala Porter, daughter of the late Thornton Porter, and to them one son was born, H. P., who yesterday saw a kind father's body laid beside that of his loving mother. Deceased was a member of the Christian church, an honorable, upright man and a good citizen. For 13 years he had been car inspector on the L. & N. and was held in high esteem by his employers.

To the Democratic Voters of Lincoln Co.

My absence from home and the short time intervening before the primary, impel me to say a few words to you through the columns of the INTERIOR JOURNAL. At the time I left for the South, I expected to have been absent only a short time, and before now to have personally seen the voters of the entire county; and I hope yet to be able to mingle with you in a very short time. In the mean time I trust that my candidacy for county judge of Lincoln county will be borne in mind by the democracy; and if you should deem it fit and proper to honor me with the nomination I promise to return, on being elected, to the extent of my ability and sense of right and justice I shall faithfully discharge the responsible duties of the office and with an eye single for the best interest of the county. Thanking my numerous friends for the encouragement and assurances, which they have so kindly given me, I am yours, most respectfully,

J. W. GIVENS.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Elijah Beazley has accepted the call of the Christian church at Rowland and will preach there the fourth Sunday in each month.

—Cornelius Vanderbilt, it is said, has given $1,000,000 to religious work in the past two years.

—The tomb of Mahomet is covered with diamonds, sapphires and rubies, valued at $10,000,000.

—The Presbyterians have not had a prayer meeting for two weeks, the alleged reason being that the electric lights wouldn't work.

—The crowds that attend the Christian church prayer meetings have become so large that it is necessary now to hold that service in the church proper.

—The failure of Talmage is due to the lack of moral sincerity in the man. His career has been one of false pretenses throughout, and he has at last been found out."—N. Y. Evening Post.

—When the organist of the Dubuque M. E. church played "Ta-ra-ra-boom" the other night the pastor, Rev. Mr. Wheat, resigned. Rev. Mr. Wheat is now looking for a field to grow up in.

—The Chicago Baptist ministers have sent a petition to the U. S. Senate to amend the tariff bill so that the phrase "a tax of one dollar on each proof gallon of spirits" shall read "a tax of one dollar and a half on each proof gallon."

—While a preacher was holding forth at Pomeroy, O., the electric lights in the church went out and refused to come back. He continued his sermon and not a soul left until the benediction was said. It was the biggest picnic the young folks had had for a long time.

—Rev. W. S. Wightman, son of the late Bishop W. M. Wightman, has left the South Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, and connected himself with the Presbyterian church. He assigns his reason a change of view in regard to doctrinal questions, having become a thoroughgoing Calvinist in belief.

—"Uncle Joe" Hopper's three weeks meeting at First Presbyterian church, Lexington, was a very fruitful one, closing with 71 converts by letter or profession, mainly by the latter. He started another at the Maxwell Street church, which is to be hoped will prove as great a success as the one just closed.—Paris Kentuckian.

—Bob Marler, who is to die on the gallows at Pineville, Feb. 9th was baptized in a bath tub in the county jail by Rev. Borum of the Baptist church. He is very enthusiastic in his religious faith and says he would rather hang now and go to Heaven, as he is sure to do, than to get out and run the risks of backsliding. All the same he is trying to get a reprieve.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

(Advocate.)

—The board of trustees, of Junction City, met last Saturday and elected a board of trustees, city judge and marshal, thus throwing overboard both Tuttle and Ellis.

—The residence and four acres on Harrodsburg avenue, belonging to the estate of Mrs. Nancy Jenkins, deceased, and at present occupied by Mrs. Sallie Bright, was sold at auction to Mrs. Mattie McDowell for $4,500.

—The trotting mare Delia Shipp, record 2:21, died at Maple Shade Farm, Boyle, of influenza. She was owned by Lytle Hudson, of Danville, and Scott Hudson, the driver, of Lexington, who last week refused to consider an offer of $5,000 for her.

—Timothy Fry and James Jones, both negroes, got into an altercation three miles from town, and in the fight both men were wounded. Fry first shot Jones in the stomach and then Jones got the pistol and shot Fry twice in the abdomen, mortally. The fight is said to have grown out of a crap game, in which 25 cents was involved.

—Two youthful gourmands indulged in a pie eating contest at the Tribune lunch counter. The question of supremacy remained undecided, however, because of a lack of material with which to continue the competition. The count showed that 14 pies, 17 sandwiches, two big cakes, and a lot of hard-boiled eggs, dressed off with such delicacies as sardines, bologna and pickled pigs feet, had been devoured.

Ten days' loss of time on account of sickness and a doctor's bill to pay is any thing but pleasant for a man of a family to contemplate, whether he is a laborer, mechanic, merchant or publisher. Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexico, Texas, was sick in bed for 10 days with the grip, during its prevalence a year or two ago. Later in the season he had a second attack. He says: "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with considerable success. I think, only being in bed a little over two days. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of the remedy." It should be borne in mind that the grip is much the same as a very severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. When you wish to cure a cold quickly and effectually give this remedy a trial. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. If you have never used this great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.

MIDDLEBURG, CASEY COUNTY.

—Janie Wash Institute has 95 pupils in attendance.

—A flock of wild geese passed over last Friday going toward the arctic region.

—There are only two empty houses in town and they would be occupied if completed.

—W. T. Coulter has rented Mr. Albert Lanham's farm and Mr. L. will move to Moreland soon.

—The bleating of lambs upon the thousand hills is about all the music that greets one's ears just now.

—Col. H. H. McAninch, Wm. Cloyd and Dr. I. C. Dye filled their ice houses with a pretty good quality of ice Saturday.

—V. R. Coleman has bought his father's farm near town and will farm it this year, provided he don't take the "sun grins" too early in the season.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Dye gave a social party Saturday night that was highly enjoyed by a number of the young folks of this vicinity.

—A very interesting and exciting discussion of the tariff took place at the post-office here on Saturday between a number of "small fry" politicians of the town and county hereabout. We are pleased to state, however, that no bad feelings were aroused and the participants shook hands on separating.

—Uncle Wm. Estes was just alive when heard from yesterday, Thursday. Uncle Caleb Jones, who has been at Jellico, Tenn., for the last five months, under treatment for the same disease, cancer, returned home Thursday. Mrs. Jas. Gibony, of Liberty, is very ill at her father's, Mr. J. C. Coulter.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

—A bill to provide for free turnpikes has been presented in the House.

—The bill to defer the penalty on unpaid taxes from Nov. 1 to Dec. 1 was passed.

—The House killed the bill to establish a State school book commission and training school.

—The bill to give married women the right to control their separate estates passed the House 70 to 14.

—The House defeated the proposed extension of the bonded period on whiskey and fixed the tax at $1 a gallon, to apply to that already in bond.

—There is strong probability that the new jury law will be repealed and the old one reinstated.

Many letters are being received by Senators from the various judges over the State, who allege that the present system occasions serious delays in the trial of cases, and, incidentally, involves heavy expenses. It is also said that the sheriffs can pack the juries by "not finding" certain men.

A bill is before the Legislature to create a county board of education, composed of the county judge, superintendent of schools and the two examiners, whose duty it will be to employ teachers in all the districts. There is to be only one trustee to the district and the fee for examination of teachers is to be increased from $1 to $2. We do not believe such a law would be acceptable to the patrons of public schools.

ROWLAND ITEMS.—Walter E. Killion is recovering from the severe injury he received at Livingston. Alex. Freytag was severely burned in the face. Miss Mary Munday entertained at euchre the other night. Miss Addie Martin has returned from Jellico. A tobacco factory in South Rowland is the latest talk. Miss Maud Orear will teach at Maywood. Tom Jennings' corn mill is doing a rushing business. J. H. Hilton went to Livingston on business. Miss Annie Ashlock has the grip. Misses Carrie and Jennie Siegel entertained a large party of young folks at euchre Saturday night. The prizes were won by Miss Mary Munday and Mr. John Chappell.

Children, who are puny, weak, or scrofulous, ought to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That builds up both their flesh and their strength. For this, and for purifying the blood, there's nothing in all medicine that can equal the "Discovery."

In recovering from the "Grippe" or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other wasting diseases, it speedily and surely invigorates and builds up the whole system. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, rouses every organ into natural action, and brings back health and strength.

For all diseases caused by a torpid liver or impure blood, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Scrofulous Skin, and Scap Diseases—even Consumption (or Lung-scorfula) in its earlier stages—the "Discovery" is the only guaranteed remedy.

It doesn't benefit or cure in every case, you have your money back.

SABBY'S QUERRY TO INGERBOLL.—This beautiful song (words and music regular sheet music size) will be mailed to anyone enclosing 5c in stamps to D. G. Edwards, General Passenger Agent, C. H. & D. R. R., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Buczin's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—A planing mill is expected to locate here in the early spring.

—Mr. Willis Adams has leased the Newcomb Hotel and took charge yesterday the 1st.

—Our people were pleased to know the governor had pardoned Conductor Turner and Engineer Wright.

—W. M. Weber has bought the Jack Adams store house and lot and will likely erect a brick business house thereon.

—Drs. Peyton and Carpenter were here last Sunday and performed an operation upon William Albright for fistula.

—D. C. Poynter has bought the Carpenter place just east of town. W. M. Weber and W. M. Poynter will exchange residences.

—Mr. John Ramsey who died near this place Tuesday morning, was well known here, the place of his nativity, for his integrity and straight-forwardness.

—The keg factory is an assured fact. Shaver & Walters, of Jamestown, N. Y., have secured grounds at this place and a building will be commenced at once. They will make paint kegs, water kegs, etc. The plant will be on an extensive scale employing a large force of men. Prospects for a handle factory are good. Mr. Olemacher, of Nashville, is here looking up a site. With the stone quarry and fireclay outlook it appears that our place ought to come to the front.

—Master Willie Spradlin is handling the daily paper sales and doing nicely. Capt. Fitzhugh, consulting engineer and geologist of the L. & N., was here a few days since investigating the quality and quantity of Rockcastle fire clay. Mrs. Burke, the woman shot by Bill Newcum, is yet living and has some chance for recovery. Dr. Cooper has located at Livingston. The father of assessor, J. Boring, died at Nashville Tuesday at an advanced age. R. E. Young left yesterday for Little Rock looking after mail routes.

Much Ado Over a Small Matter.

To the Editor Interior Journal.

McKINNEY, Jan. 31.—Very unexpectedly and undesirably I have been brought into an unpleasant controversy between S. M. Owens and T. D. Newland, candidates for the office of sheriff of Lincoln county. The matter grew out of statements made by me in a public speech on the subject of Temperance in the Cumberland River Association at Waynesburg last August. Recently I heard that certain misrepresentations of my speech were being circulated, to the detriment of myself and the two gentlemen before mentioned. An apparently satisfactory explanation was given both these gentlemen, but on last Saturday Mr. Owens approached me with an instrument of writing and asked me to sign it. After reading it and seeing names of several citizens asserting the truthfulness of it I signed it thus: W. R. Gooch BELIEVES the same to be true." I positively had no personal knowledge of the matter referred to in Mr. Owens' article and under no consideration would I have signed it as a witness stating facts. I see in yesterday's INTERIOR JOURNAL the article is given to the public and that my name is then divested of the explanation which should follow it. I am there made to appear as a witness of things said to have occurred in a class of society that I never enter. The men said to have been present are my friends and I appreciate them as such, but I NEVER go into a saloon or places where intoxicants are being treated out. Owens did not intimate to me that he intended to have the document published, and why he would take the liberty to change it to suit his just now peculiar circumstances, remains for the public to decide.

W. R. GOOCH.

The paper was signed as Mr. Gooch says. It was so handed in by Mr. Owens and the omission was entirely the fault of the printer.—EDITOR.

A Little Way.

A little way to walk with you, my own—
Only a little way!
Then one of us must weep and walk alone
Until God's day.

A little way! It is so sweet to live
Together, that I know
Life would not have one withered rose to give
If one of us should go.

And if these lips should ever learn to smile,
And thy heart far from mine,
'Twould be for joy that in a little while
They would be kissed by thine!

—Frank L. Stanton, in Atlanta Constitution.

Four Big Successes.

Having the needed merit to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery, for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed—Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver Stomach and Kidneys. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

O. W. O. Hardman, sheriff of Tyler Co., W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says: "It gave me prompt relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds." For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker.

Mrs. Emily Thorpe, who resides at Toledo, Washington, says that she has never been able to procure any medicine for rheumatism that relieves the pain so quickly and effectually as Chamberlain's Pain Balm and that she has also used it for lame back with great success. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker.

NEW

FURNITURE : STORE.

Opposite Coffey House,

STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

I will open a First-Class Stock of Household Furniture, &c.

The Second week in February.

W. W. WITHERS.

WHAT!

That's what, and if you don't believe it see our new assortment of goods for 1894.

Largest Stock. - Lowest Prices.

Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silverware, Bronzes, Spectacles and anything and everything in the Jewelry line at

Danks', the Jeweler,

STANFORD, KY.

1894.

The year past has been to us all a stringent one in money matters and for that reason I have been very lenient toward those whose accounts were due in July. Now

TIMES : ARE : EASIER,

Banks and individuals have money to loan and I urge those who owe me to come and settle at once. I need the money, it is due me and I want it.

I AM VERY GRATEFUL

To my customers for their patronage of the past and hope to ever merit your confidence.

H. J. McROBERTS.

A. R. PENNY.

DRUGGIST & JEWELER.

A Complete line of Drugs and Medicine, &c. Prescriptions a Specialty. Watches, Clocks, Gold, Silver and Plated Ware at lowest prices. Attention promptly given to repairs.

GO TO A. R. PENNY.

McRoberts' Drug Store,

Opposite Court-House

A : COMPLETE : STOCK

—OF—

DRUGS, BOOKS, PAINTS,

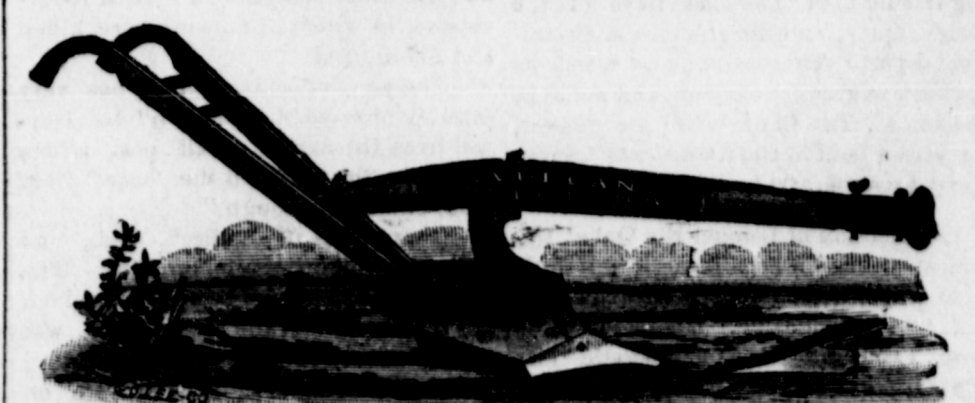

Nicest line of Stationery and Toilet Articles. Prescriptions accurately Compounded. Give him a Call.

W. B. McROBERTS,

Druggist, Stanford, Ky.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR ABOUT

The Vulcan Chilled Plows

Every one fully guaranteed. Oliver Chilled Plow Extras at Reduced Prices.

W. H. WEAREN & CO.

W. P. WALTON.

6 OR 8 PAGES.
EVERY FRIDAY.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL never dodges an issue or takes middle grounds on anything. Its editor has his opinion on every question that arises, but he tries not to be dogmatic in their assertion. His views on the whisky question are known to most of the people of the immediate section. He has given the matter some study and had considerable opportunity to judge by observation, and it is his candid opinion that a well guarded license law is a better way to deal with the evil, than with prohibition laws, which do not prohibit; and which did not prohibit when they were supposed to be in force here. This is a question though on which many good men differ, whose opinions are entitled to respect, and as he has no more interest in it than any other one man, and will lose no sleep no matter which way the election goes, he will not permit the paper to champion the cause of either side unless an overt act of some of the leaders makes it necessary, a hypothesis he does not indulge. So far as he is personally concerned, the editor is as good a prohibitionist as any of the immaculate gentlemen, who espouse the cause and cast aspersions on those who do not. He rarely takes a drink and no man in Stanford here, since prohibition was defeated, except perhaps other business has taken him into them. He despises the whisky traffic and regards it as the greatest evil of the day, but he believes in taking a common sense view of the question, and not let zeal run off with judgment, as fanatics and fools sometimes do.

The self-constituted committee of short-haired reformers who went to Frankfort to get the Legislature to raise the "age of consent," learned a thing or two. They thought it meant to consent to carnal intercourse, when it really means the age at which women may marry. The laws they are old enough at 12, if their parents do not object, and to raise the age of consent to 18 would prohibit them from marrying till they reached that age. It is rape in the eyes of the law for a man to have carnal knowledge of a girl under 12, with her consent; after she reaches that age such knowledge is punished for seduction, which is made a felony when accomplished by a promise to marry. After being told these things the women became satisfied that the laws were ample for most any emergency and left in a better frame of mind.

If we remember correctly, and we think we do, there was a time when considerable doubt was felt and expressed as to Judge Beckner's democracy, but bounding Bill from Berea, we mean Clark, bounced upon the Legislature Wednesday and introduced a resolution, which was passed 53 to 23, instructing our Senators to vote against the confirmation of Peckham for supreme judge because he is a mugwump. If the appointee is the kind of a man he is described, we should like to see him walk the plank with Hornblower, Harrison, et al, but at the same time it looks like the Legislature has a sufficient amount of its own business to attend to, instead of sticking its nose in things that do not directly concern it.

An unusually sad case is reported from Louisville. It is said that Miss Mattie Roath, deliberately committed suicide to allow her mother to get the insurance on her life, in order that she might no longer suffer from poverty and hunger as the two had for a long time. If this is true it is a terrible object lesson of the misery that is being felt in the cities and calls for a little less of the rarity of human charity.

The clerk of the Court of Appeals is the best paid officer in the State. In response to a resolution from the House, Clerk Addams shows that Mrs. Longmoor made clear in 1892, $8,839 73, and in 1893, $10,015 57; and year by year the fees seem to increase. A bill to fix the compensation of the clerk of the Court of Appeals at $4,000 a year, with an allowance of $1,800 for clerk hire, has been introduced.

Three thousand people greeted Gen. John B. Gordon at Music Hall, Louisville, when he arose to tell of the thrilling incidents of "The Last Days of the Confederacy," in which he took so prominent a part. Those who heard it tell us that it was grandly eloquent and noble in sentiment. The Confederate Association, for whose benefit the lecture was given, cleared over $1,000 by it.

The election of Lemuel Ely Quigg, the almost unknown republican in the 14th New York City Congressional district, is almost inexplicable. His majority is about 1,000, showing a democratic loss of 9,000. For 10 years before no republican had been elected to Congress from New York City. The gentleman of the funny name has therefore awakened to find himself as famous almost as Hoke Smith.

ROSINA VOKES, the actress who has just died in England, was said to be the ugliest woman that ever appeared behind the footlights. She must have been possessed of extraordinary astronomic ability to have succeeded so admirably in a profession in which beauty is more essential than in any other profession.

THERE are said to be more than 1,000 first class postmasters whose terms have expired, still holding the offices that belong to democrats. No wonder the people are beginning to kick at Mr. Cleveland.

THE age of Congressman Breckinridge is put at 56 years, and yet his hair is as white as the driven snow. Early piety, probably.—Georgetown Times. And sitting in damp churches.

If the appointment of Editor W. M. Finley to be assistant postmaster at Louisville means his retirement from the Bee, we rise to object. Its sting is worth a dozen post office places.

NEWSY NOTES.

—John Lavin, 35, was found frozen to death in Bourbon.

—T. J. Chenoweth has been appointed postmaster at Maysville.

—C. H. Fletcher has been appointed postmaster at Alpine, Pulaski county.

—The Carrollton Woolen Mills plant that cost $50,000 sold last week for 17,000.

—T. B. Ferguson, of Maryland, has been appointed minister to Sweden and Norway.

—The total assessment of Madison county's personal and real property is $9,280,660.

—A Massachusetts sleighing party were struck by a train at Fall River and three killed.

—Rosina Vokes, the actress, belonging to the well-known family of actors, died in Devonshire.

—The boiler of a saw mill let go in Daviess county and five persons were blown to atoms.

—Four school girls were caught by an avalanche in the mountains of Idaho and buried alive.

—Anybody can make and use the Bell electric telephone now. The patent expired Tuesday.

—J. R. Collier and J. R. Redding have been appointed postmasters at Franklin and Glasgow respectively.

—Frank Preston, a seven-year-old negro boy of Louisville, drank a pint of whisky and died from the effects.

—Thomas Hermann, of Hawesville, cut his throat because his wife would not deed her property over to him.

—A mean old cuss at Maysville had 125 young ladies and men arrested for skating on his pond without his consent.

—Representative Sibley, of Pennsylvania, has withdrawn his resignation, and says he will vote against the Wilson bill.

—James Herbert, of Buffalo, gave his old shoes to a tramp. He afterwards discovered that his wife had hidden $150 in them.

—The losses by fire last year in the United States and Canada were $144,340,000, being $24,000,000 more than the previous year.

—Daniel B. Judson, one of the largest glove manufacturers of Gloversville, N. Y., has assigned. The liabilities are said to be $250,000.

—The Louisiana Lottery, under the name of the Honduras National Lottery Company, has opened up in great shape at Tampa, Fla.

—The receipts of internal revenue decreased $11,370,074 during the last six months of the fiscal year. The aggregate is $72,927,357.

—Mayor William Mayer, of Harrogate, who was shot at his home by ex-Marshall Bob Newlee, is still alive, but will die. Newlee is still at large.

—Mr. Turner the democratic candidate, was elected to succeed Gov. O'Ferrall as the representative of the 17th Virginia district in Congress.

—Judge Cox, at Washington, denied the application of the Knights of Labor for an injunction to restrain Secretary Carlisle from issuing bonds.

—The railway train wrecks in December included 84 collisions, 77 derailments and five other accidents, a total of 166 accidents, in which 31 persons were killed and 209 injured.

—The post office department has very sensibly ordered that the "h" be dropped from the names of all post offices ending in "burgh" and the "ugh" from those ending "borough."

—George Lee, of Madison, Ind., had his neck broken while milking. The cow gave a lunge and his head, which was resting against the cow's flank, was literally driven into his shoulders.

—Mr. Wilson has figured the vote on the tariff bill, democratic 182, populists 11; total 193. Negative—Republicans 126, democrats 32, populist 1 (Newlands, of Nevada;) total 159. Majority for bill 32.

—Judge J. C. Chenault, of Richmond, is a candidate for attorney general.

—George W. Childs, the Philadelphia editor, is still alive, but he is speechless and the end seems very near.

—Louisville has at last a democratic postmaster, the first since before the war. The transfer is now being made.

—The dead lock in the Mississippi Legislature continues and the session will have to be extended to elect a successor to Senator Walthall.

—Mrs. Nancy Gillman, of New Hampshire, who is in her 90th year, procured over 100 signatures to a woman's suffrage petition to be presented to the Legislature.

—Bates Shackleford, senior member of the wholesale hardware firm of Shackleford & Gentry, Richmond, was shot in the breast and seriously wounded by his brother, Clay, because of a family dispute.

—The town of Kutschan, Persia, has been destroyed by an earthquake and 12,000 lives lost. 8,000 escaped. The state of the city is now a scene of desolation. 50,000 cattle were killed by the shocks.

—The work of providing employment for the idle working men, or Cincinnati, under the $100,000 contingent fund appropriated by the city was begun Monday, the preference being given to married men.

—A terrific storm has been raging on the coast of Maine and further East. Many vessels were wrecked with loss of life and a number of men were frozen to death. The snow is two feet deep at Ottawa, Ont.

—Corbett says he will pay no attention to the challenges of Denver Smith and Fitzsimmons but will certainly wipe up the earth with Peter Jackson. He will only train six weeks for the fight with Jackson.

—New York is catching up with, if it has not already passed Chicago, in tall buildings. The American Surety company is preparing to build a building at Pine and Broadway which, it is said, will be 450 feet high.

—Congressman McCreary went before the Rivers and Harbors Committee, and urged that the improvements on the Kentucky River be put under the contract system so that they shall be continued until finished.

—There will be no more prize fighting in Louisiana. The supreme court finds that the Olympic Club has forfeited its charter by having the Corbett-Sullivan fight and its affairs have been placed in the hands of a receiver.

—The miners at the Mingo mines have decided to obey the orders of the court and vacate their houses. Thirty families have moved to town. New men will be put to work at once, and the mines will soon be in full operation.

—In the Little Rock, Ark., circuit court, in the case of a black man and a white woman who had been married in regular form by an ordained minister, Judge Lee held their marriage illegal, and fined them for living together.

—Dispatches received from Rio de Janeiro, January 30, say that Admiral Da Gama having opened fire upon one of the American warships, a sharp engagement followed, with the result that Admiral Da Gama surrendered.

—One good effect of open markets is seen in the announcement that the Argentine Republic, in view of the probably early admission of its wool to this country free, has removed the duty on crude American petroleum.

—Thomas Moonlight, of Kansas, formerly Governor of Wyoming, has been nominated Minister to Bolivia, the position for which H. J. Taylor, the ambitious colored diplomat, was named and was rejected by the Senate.

—An unusual occurrence took place in Falmouth this week. It was the closing of all the business houses and saloons from 11 to 12 o'clock on account of the Union services held at the Methodist church. —(Pendleton Democrat.

—Hoboken, N. J., is in great luck. An eccentric old wine merchant has died intestate and without heirs, leaving a cellar filled with the rarest and costliest of wines, estimated to be worth $50,000. Under the New Jersey law this goes to the city.

—Lemuel Ely Quigg, an almost unknown young newspaper man and a republican, defeated the popular Col. Wm. L. Brown for Congress in the 14th New York district, which is usually strongly democratic. Isidor Straus, the democratic candidate, was elected in the 15th district.

—The internal revenue measure, including the income tax, was added to the Wilson bill as an amendment by a vote of 175 to 56 by the House in committee on the whole. The tariff bill thus amended was reported to the House and it was expected that the final vote passing the bill would be taken before adjournment yesterday.

—Alfred McElroy, employed on an L. & N. construction train, was run over and injured so his leg had to be amputated. He compromised with the company for $700, but afterward sued in the Marion circuit court for $10,000. The case was tried this week, when a jury found that he should have $3,500.

—The court of appeals finds that when the applicant for a druggist's license has within six months next preceding the application been selling without the license the statute makes it the duty of the judge to refuse the license unless the applicant will, in addition to the regular license tax pay a sum equal to 20 per cent. thereof.

—James Lenning, of Muncie, Ind., caused the arrest of his divorced wife, Ethel Boyce, who, he says, held the fingers of her child against a red hot stove.

—Dr. W. P. White, the health officer, has had 7,266 children in the Louisville public schools vaccinated. Many thousands were also vaccinated by family physicians.

—An underground fire has been raging in Estill county for six weeks and fears are entertained that the mountain will cave in. The slate is charged with sulphur and very combustible.

—Judge Toney sent Banker Schmidt to jail for contempt. Theodore Harris, president of the Louisville Banking Co., will also go when he is caught unless he purges himself of the contempt.

—The State College at Lexington has matted between 80 and 90 new students within the past two weeks. All the departments are full, and students continue to come in every day.

—The Secretary of State reports 180 State and 13 private banks, which show an increase in capital stock, surplus fund, deposits, loans and discounts, amount due from banks and cash over the September reports.

—A great opportunity was lost in the failure to let loose a kodak upon Senator Chandler, of New Hampshire, when he was so pathetically pleading for the purity of the ballot. Such a picture would have been famous for all time.

—A further loss of $400,000 in gold is reported at the treasury, leaving the gold balance standing at $65,500,000, or a loss, during the month of January, of $15,000,000, or at the rate of $500,000 a day.

—The recent loan of $50,000 to a Pittsburgh glass company by an association of glass workers, was a striking example of real reciprocity; it enabled the works to keep their doors open and the workmen to continue at work. That is a big improvement on the blowing in of workmen's cash on a strike.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—John Pepples sold to John Gooch an aged mule for $100.

—Harvey Cobb sold a jennet to Arnold, of Woodford, for $500.—Climax.

—John Anderson sold to Thompson Bros., a bunch of mountain cattle at 2c.

—Richard Robinson bought in Garrard and Madison a lot of butcher stuff at 2 to 2½c.

—FOR SALE.—Two jacks, one by Brignoli and ready for service. Each 14½ hands. S. H. Shanks.

—George H. Ketcham claims to have cleared $6,000 out of his black-smith at Toledo, O., this year.

—George Starr says that Direct, 2:05½, will go in 2:03 this year. He claims to have driven him a quarter in 28 seconds.

—Thomas H. Glover was elected inspector for the Louisville tobacco board of trade after a deadlock, which lasted several weeks.

—G. M. Stout, of Versailles, has sold to Paul Jones, of Louisville, Outglass 2:20½ for $7,500. Next to Nellie A., 2:19, he was the sensational 2-year-old of last year.

—Goldsmith Maid is said to have won during her turf career $364,000. Her record of 2:14 has been beaten by 119 horses, and yet she was the greatest campaigner that ever lived.

—P. W. Green will take his string of fancy horses to Lexington to-morrow so as to have them there during the sales next week. He has six head of as nice ones as one could wish to see.

—A large crowd attended the sale of Mrs. Catherine Blackberry's effects Tuesday and as the sale was made on six month's time without interest, good prices were realized. Household and kitchen furniture sold high; milk cows $17 to $38; sow and 8 pigs $20; 85 pound shoats $4; sheep $2.55; brood mares $24 to $61; aged mules $80; corn in crib $2.25 to $2.30; wheat 65c; barley 41c.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Statistics show that a third more widowers marry than widows.

—If he could not get confirmed for supreme judge, he could get married and did. A dispatch from New York says: William B. Hornblower and Mrs. Emily S. Nelson were married Wednesday.

—The Nashville gentleman who took his sweetheart across his knees and attempted to spank a confession of love out of her is now in jail. Young gentlemen in love will find it very much pleasanter, in general as well as particular results, to cut the Nashville swain's programme down to the first act.—Glasgow Times.

To Whom It May Concern.

McKINNEY, KY., JAN. 29, 1894.

We, the undersigned, do hereby state that the report which is now and has already been circulated over this county that S. M. Owens, candidate for sheriff, brought and treated out at McKinney on one Sunday afternoon last Summer, a keg of beer, is an absolute and malicious falsehood. Mr. Owens was in town on the afternoon referred to and was invited to partake of the beer, but had nothing to do with paying for or taking the beer to McKinney. Some opponent of his takes advantage of same and has stated, or caused the same to be, that Mr. Owens is the man who paid for and treated out the beer. But all may rest assured that such a statement is untrue. E. O. Singleton, Geo. E. Alford, W. T. Dodds, A. O. Dunn, W. R. Davidson, E. M. Estes, S. M. Helm, J. K. Huston, T. W. Walker, W. R. Gooch believe the same to be true.

CONTINUED

—IS OUR WINTER—

CLEARANCE: SALE.

During the coming week we shall place on our counters all of our Winter Goods at reduced prices in order to clear out every article we don't wish to carry over till next season. We have marked all of our woolen goods at prices that will induce customers to appreciate first-class goods at lowest prices.

All Things Come to Him Who Waits.

Let's apply this quotation to the buying of winter goods. Perhaps there are some goods in our line of

Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots Shoes and Hats

That you needed last fall but times were a bit tight and you concluded to make the old ones do and wait for a January reduction. You pursued a wise course. Now you may get the benefit of your waiting if you continue to be wise and

COME TO SEE US

We will show you the Greatest Stock, the Prettiest Stock and the Best Stock in Stanford.

LOUISVILLE: STORE,

STANFORD, KY.,

A. URBANSKY & CO., Proprietor
T. D. RANEY, Manager.

B. B. KING.

GEORGE B. PREWITT.

KING & PREWITT.

MORELAND, KY.,

We have opened up a nice line of

Dry Goods, Notions, Dress Goods, Clothing Boots, Shoes, Hats, Groceries, Hardware,

We are daily receiving our Fall Goods, which we are marking down lower than ever.

Terms cash or country produce. Give us a call. We will save you money.

We are opening up a splendid line of Fall Millinery.

Locust posts, 25 and 35c; plank fence posts, 15c; stakes 5c; chestnut posts 16½c. Large lot on hand.

Corn Wanted.

KING & PREWITT.

B. K. WEAREN,

(Successor to Geo. D. Wearen.)

Dealer in Carriages, Wagons, Buggies, Farming Implements,

Saddles, Harness, Hay and Seeds, will occupy this space this year and if you want to save money you had better keep your eye on it.

Get His Prices

Before you buy and you will be convinced that he is cheaper than the cheapest.

W. L. WITHERS, Salesman.

Beware.

—OF—

Bogus Oliver Chilled Plow Repairs

J. K. VANARSDALE,

Is the only one authorized to sell Oliver Chilled Plow Repairs in Stanford.

FARRIS & HARDIN,

—Dealers in—

Groceries, Hardware, Stoves, Tinware,

Queensware, Glassware,

Harness, &c.

Plows, Wagons, Harrows

Call and Examine their Stock.

MEANS BUSINESS.

BUY your school books and school supplies of all kinds at A. R. Penny's. WATCHES, clocks and jewelry repaired and warranted. Engraving a specialty, at A. R. Penny's.

THE largest stock of Drugs, Medicines, Perfumery, Paints and Wall Paper at A. R. Penny's. Prescriptions a specialty.

PERSONAL POINTS.

MISS SUE ROUR is quite sick.

MR. H. C. FARRIS went to Somerset Wednesday.

MISS CORA JONES has gone to Somerset to attend school.

MISS MINYA PHELPS, of Madison, is visiting Miss Mary McKinney.

MISS MAY ARNOLD, of Missouri, is the guest of her relative, Mrs. J. B. Paxton.

MESSRS. J. H. VANHOOK and Geo. T. McRoberts, of Brodhead, were here Tuesday.

MRS. LIZZIE McALISTER has moved to Danville, much to the regret of her friends here.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN H. KERRY, of Garrard, are visiting Mayor and Mrs. D. W. Vandever.

MR. AND MRS. GEO. B. PERWITT, of Moreland, have been visiting the family of Mr. Peter Straub.

MISS SUE and SALLIE ELLIS leave to-morrow for a protracted visit to relatives at Williamsburg.

MRS. L. A. FARRIS went over to Lexington Tuesday to see her husband, who is running on the C. S.

MR. J. H. SOWDER, the real estate man, got his hand severely cut while splitting kindling yesterday.

MISS MAMIE MOORE, the pretty brunette who assisted in Mrs. Dudderar's millinery, is visiting friends in Cincinnati.

SAMUEL PRYOR, the young son of Mr. L. H. Fryer, is in a very dangerous condition—the effects of a severe case of measles.

MISS SUSIE LASKY went to Louisville yesterday to attend the marriage of her cousin, John T. Lasky to Miss Annie Hill, which occurred last night.

WILL H. SHANKS, who has been attending college at Lexington, was compelled to give up his studies on account of his eyes and has returned home.

GEORGE B. WEAREN has engaged as traveling salesman for E. J. Gillies & Co., dealers in coffee, teas and spices, New York City, and will start out next week.

MR. ED STAGG, of the Hustonville Roller Mills, went to the mountains Wednesday to fish and hunt for game and health. He has been under the weather for some time.

CITY AND VICINITY.

DANKS, the people's Jeweler.

FRESH Yellow Butter wanted at A. A. Warren's at once.

New barrel of pure sorghum at McKinney & Hocker's.

OLIVER chilled plow points, three for $1, at W. H. Wearen & Co.'s.

HAVE you paid your account at McKinney Bros.? If not, why not?

YOUR account will be ready January 1st. Call and settle. A. R. Penny.

IMPORTED Bric a Brac and elegant Bisc just received. Danks, the Jeweler.

You can get a good, clean bath on Saturday if you so desire. Jesse Thompson.

REMEMBER that M. F. Elkin pays the highest cash price for hides and all kinds of fur.

TEN sacks of mail were received at the post-office here by the morning trains, for one delivery.

CITY TAXES.—All city taxes that are not paid by April 1st will have 6 per cent. added. O. J. Newland, City Marshal.

BANK STOCK FOR SALE.—Twenty-four shares of stock in the First National Bank of Stanford for sale privately. S. P. and D. B. Stagg, executors of Daniel Stagg, dec'd.

We have given you the month of January to settle your account. So you may expect to hear from us by statement or see us in person. Prepare to settle. Severance & Son.

AFTER swearing that it would never consent to granting liquor license the city council of Pineville has consented to do at $500 a saloon. "The 4th class city" needs money badly.

JIM TALL, who has been living a quiet and virtuous life for a year or more, has broken loose again and is now working out a five-day fine for whipping Ellen Jones, a colored street walker.

A SORRY looking pair were lodged in jail here yesterday by Constable T. R. Pettus. They were Wm. King and John Andy Dishon, and they are held in $100 bail for stealing hogs from Mr. Turnbull. As it is a graver offense, in the eyes of the average jury to steal a hog, than to kill a man, the two will likely catch it heavily as it is said the case against them is plain.

DIAMONDS at Danks' the Jeweler.

DR. HEDLEY writes that he will lecture here Feb. 9.

FIELD seeds at W. H. Wearen & Co.'s at the lowest cash prices.

THIEVES got into Beazley Bros.' Irish potato pit Tuesday night and relieved it of 10 or 15 bushels.

The residence of Mr. David Eubanks, of the Milledgeville section, burned Wednesday. The cause was a defective flue.

This is the day for the arctomys monax to come out of his hole. Let us pray that he won't see his ugly picture on the ground.

The old Commercial will not be razed this or 'smother year soon. A tin roof and a pretty coat of paint makes it look almost like a new house.

THE Cincinnati Southern ought to let up and take a rest till it can run its trains on time. For three days in succession we have missed the Cincinnati and eastern mail owing to the failure of that road to connect with the L. & N.

J. W. JAMES, of Crab Orchard, has posted at the court house a notice stating that he will apply at the next county court for distillery license, with the privilege of selling by the quart at his residence. He will likely have a hard fight to get it.

MR. PERRY, the pianist, who is shortly to appear here, is a friend of Miss Mill-houser, of the College faculty, who is sure our people will be pleased with his entertainment. She will exert herself to secure him a good audience and expects to dispose of many tickets.

THE Court of Appeals has affirmed Judge Morrow's decision in the case of the killing of the Gresham boy by the L. & N. at the Junction City crossing. It was claimed that the train did not stop before making the crossing, but the court holds that the stop is not for people to pass and the negligence does not make the company liable for damages to them.

THE candidates are as coy of the prohibition question as a maiden is of her lover. They might follow the example of the fellow who ran for constable in Maine 40 years ago, when the prohibitory law was being tried. He kept from committing himself as long as possible, but finally was forced to speak, which he did in this non-committal way: "I am in favor of the law, but against its enforcement." It is hardly necessary to add that he was not elected.

OF the talented blind pianist and musical lecturer, Mr. Edward Baxter Perry, who will appear at Walton's Opera House, on the night of the 17th, the St. Paul Globe says: Mr. Perry is a charming player, poetic in the extreme in passages of tender emotion, and in movements of fancy, light and airy. His brilliancy of execution, highly developed technique and accuracy astonished and delighted the audience, who sat entranced during the exhibition of his skill at the piano.

THE prohibitionists must not lay the flattering unction to their souls that all who sign the petition for an election on the whisky question will vote for local option. A number have told us that they simply signed for the fun an election would bring and others because they wanted to give the "drys" a chance, with no intention of voting that way themselves. At the present outlook it is more than probable that the Crab Orchard precinct will go dry and the chances are that Hustonville will do likewise, but the result in the Stanford precinct is not so certain. In fact the probabilities are that it will continue the present method of dealing with the evil—taxing it with a high license.

ACQUITTED.—Last May Mr. H. C. Jones, formerly of this county, but for some time cashier of the People's National Bank at Ennis, Texas, killed a man, news of which we gave at the time. The trouble grew out of business differences in which Mr. Jones was protecting the interests of his bank. A notoriously bad man made it a personal matter and assaulted Mr. Jones in the post office, striking him a blinding blow in the face. Having been warned of his threats, Mr. Jones was armed, and recovering himself shot his assailant, killing him. He was indicted for manslaughter in December and at the trial, which consumed two days, he was acquitted in five minutes after the case was given to the jury, which was composed of leading citizens of the county.

PARDONED.—Our readers remember the terrible collision near Hazel Patch last September, which was caused by Conductor Charley Turner and Engineer Lam Wright of the passenger train forgetting orders and running against a freight train. Two persons were killed and a number wounded. At the ensuing term of the Laurel Circuit court, Turner and Wright were indicted for murder. A petition was at once gotten up and signed by leading citizens all along the line, asking the governor to pardon them. It was presented this week and in view of the fact that they had never had an accident before in the 20 years that they had been on the road, by which human life was lost, and if negligent in this instance it was not intentional since their own lives were placed in jeopardy, the executive very promptly granted the petition.

New goods at Danks', the Jeweler.

WE tried to get the vote on the Wilson bill yesterday by wire but were unable to do so.

WHITE goods, hamburgs, laces, gingham, towels, table linens, napkins, carpets, etc. Severance & Son.

THE weather continues to behave nicely. After the rainless clouds of Wednesday night had been dispelled, the sun came out yesterday, and looked like he had come to stay. The weather service sent no dispatch, so no changes may be expected.

A LODGE of Knights of Honor with 24 enthusiastic charter members was instituted at Lebanon Junction by Grand Deputies, M. D. Hughes and A. A. Warren. The same gentlemen were to institute a lodge at Lancaster last night with 30 odd members.

WE can not impress on our correspondents the importance of writing proper names very plainly, more than by telling them that as legibly and as nicely as we write a new compositor set up what we attempted to write for Eld. Jos. Ballou, Col. Jno. B. Allen.

MR. J. W. ROUR received his commission as postmaster yesterday, with instructions to take charge as soon as he can make his arrangements, which will be in a few days. Under his administration we are promised an earlier opening of the mails, two Sunday deliveries and an absolute prohibition of any one within the delivery, for all of which we will be thankful, though the law insures us at least two of them.

THE same old tactics are beginning to be worked in the prohibition contest. Somebody's always sure to get a notice that his further efforts towards a repeal of the license system will result in his house being burned over his head. We learn that Mr. G. S. McKinney is the victim selected this time. Whisky advocates may have sent the warning, but they do say prohibitionists have occasionally sent out such things to create popular feeling in their behalf.

THE LODGE of Knights of Honor here has taken on a new lease of life, and there are accessions to its numbers at nearly every meeting. The membership now numbers 43 and there are three applicants for initiation to-night. The lodge was instituted 20 years ago the 15th of April next and the anniversary will be duly and handsomely celebrated. During its life $18,000 has been paid to deceased members. So far it has proved the cheapest kind of an insurance as well as a most reliable one.

DENIES IT.—Under date of Kirksville, Jan. 25, Prof. B. F. Blakeman writes to the Danville Advocate stating that the whole story about his mistreating his music teacher and being run off by the indignant citizens was a cowardly concoction of a Commercial Gazette correspondent and is absolutely false. He says he only engaged the teacher for three weeks at $25 a month and as she only worked one he paid her $7.50, which he proves by publishing her receipt in full.

HAS CRAZY SPELLS.—A few days ago Tom Davis came to town and had a warrant sworn out for Joshua Crabtree, aged 73, charging him with insulting his wife. Constable Tom Benedict arrested the old man and brought him to town Wednesday for trial. In the absence of Judge Varnon he was tried before Judge Carson. Crabtree's plea was that several days out of each week he would go crazy and that it was on one of his crazy days that he used the offensive language to Mrs. Davis.

EACH of the local preachers deny in the most emphatic terms that they obtained the signature of a negro or anybody else to the petition for a local option election by misrepresentation. They do not approve of such a course in the first place and it would not be necessary if they did to procure all the names they want. The statement published in our last that one of them had fooled a negro into signing the petition was made to a reporter by Pete Huston, who claimed that Rev. A. V. Sizemore only told him that the election was to take a vote on having better times. Mr. Sizemore says the negro was drunk at the time he approached him, but says he has since told that he fully endorsed what he did and knew what he was doing.

LINCOLN COUNTY has 53½ miles of railroad according to the commissioners' report, assessed at $1,005,655, which at 22 cents on the $100 puts a good many shekels into her coffers. The Q. & C. has 23.83 miles in the county assessed with its other property at $610,115; the L. & N. Knoxville division 22.42 assessed at $364,063; the L. & N., Kentucky Central division, 4.45 miles assessed at 22,477 and the Cincinnati & Kentucky, 3 miles $9,000. Stanford can tax the L. & N. on 1.52 miles valued at $25,360, Rowland 1.18 miles valued at $25,360, Rowland 1.13 miles $18,975. Kings Mountain can tax the Q. & C. on 1 of a mile valued at $19,420. As under the new laws, counties, municipalities and school districts can tax the railroads, it will be seen that they pay a large sum towards supporting the various forms of government.

—Temperance advocates are invited to observe the fact that whisky caused the liveliest disturbance of the session in the National House of Representatives.—Courier Journal.

AN ELOPEMENT.—Considerable surprise was created here Tuesday when it began to be whispered around that Eph Engleman and Miss Maggie Cohen had left on the 3 o'clock train for Jeffersonville on matrimony bent. Miss Cohen, who is a daughter of Mr. Joe A. Cohen, of Versailles, was visiting in the country near here and it was from there that Mr. Engleman stole his pretty bride. They were married Tuesday in Jeffersonville, and that night returned to Stanford, and took rooms at Mrs. Mary Engleman's the groom's mother. A goodly number of the young couple's friends met them at the depot and extended warm congratulations and good wishes. Mr. Engleman has just attained his majority, while his bride is but 18. We hope that their union may prove a blessing to both and that they will never have cause to regret the rather precipitant haste of their nuptials.

A local poet hands us the following, which Stanford people may appreciate:

1ST.
Black-eyed beauty,
Blue-eyed boy,
Much in love,
Oh! what joy.
2ND.
Irate Aunt,
Boy much afraid,
Takes L. & N.,
Antie in the shade.
3RD.
Boy and girl in Jeff.,
Auntie far away,
Squire ties the knot,
What can Auntie say?

—A dispatch from Richmond says that the difficulty between the Shackelford brothers, Clay and Bates, was not nearly so serious a matter as was first reported, and that the causes which led up to and the circumstances in connection with the trouble have been greatly exaggerated. The young men themselves are very indignant over the injustice done them, and emphatically deny the reports concerning the affair. The local papers have not mentioned it.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE

LINCOLN CIRCUIT COURT.
The Second National Bank of Ashland, Ky. Plff., vs. C. R. Coleman and others.

Pursuant to a judgment of the Lincoln Circuit Court, rendered in the above action at its October term, 1893, the undersigned, Commissioner will, before the court house door in the town of Stanford, Ky. on Monday, Feb. 12th, 1894.

Between the hours of 11 a. m. and 3 p. m., it being county court day for Lincoln county, sell at public outcry to the highest bidder, the following hereinafter described property, situated and lying in the county of Lincoln, State of Kentucky, on the waters of Dix River, immediately on the Stanford & Crab Orchard turnpike road and about 4½ miles from Stanford. The property directed to be sold by the judgment herein consists of a Tract of Land

Containing 105 Acres 3 Roods,

Well improved with a new dwelling house, out-houses and barn. The said Tract of land is bounded by the lands of John S. Owsley, William M. Luckey, John Holmes, Ben Richardson, and others. The farm is commonly called the Eaton Farm and where defendants now reside. The said Farm, or enough thereof, will be sold for the purpose of realizing a fund sufficient to satisfy the following debt in the order named: First the debt of the First National Bank of Stanford, Ky., for $674.45, with 6 per cent interest from January 23, 1892, until paid, and its costs, subject to a credit of $304.14, paid January 23, 1893. Second, the debt of the Second National Bank of Ashland, Ky., for $1,850 with 6 per cent interest from Aug. 25, 1893, until paid. Third, the debt of the Columbus Finance & Trust Company, trustee for New Farmers Bank of Mt. Sterling, Ky., for $2,812.65, with 6 per cent interest from July 29, 1892, until paid, and its costs, subject to a credit of $500, paid May 8, 1893. The whole amount to be raised is $5,170.24, and estimated costs $85.58.

Terms of Sale.—In two equal installments, on a credit of 6 and 12 months. Bonds with good personal security for purchase price, bearing 6 per cent interest from day of sale until paid, having force and effect of judgment, with lien retained until all the purchase money is paid, and payable to the Commissioner. R. C. WARREN, 95-4 Master Com'r Lincoln Circuit Court

NOTICE!

I would like to exchange some Real Estate in Corbin, Ky.,

Improved or unimproved, for some good Stallions and saddle or harness horses.

D. T. CHESTNUT, Corbin, Ky.

Lincoln Circuit Court.

R. H. Bronaugh, Adm'r of D. G. Slaughter, deceased, Plff., vs. D. G. Slaughter's Hrs. and Creditors, Defts. Notice to Creditors.

By virtue of an order of reference in this case, the undersigned Com'r will hear proof of and make report of claims against the estate of D. G. Slaughter, dec'd., and the creditors are notified to produce and file their claims before the Commissioner, properly verified, before the 20th day of February, 1894.

R. C. WARREN, 94 Master Com'r Lincoln Circuit Court.

Notice--Gentlemen!

Look out for the ROWLAND HOTEL. I have rented the Bright Ferrill property and have it nicely fixed up. My rates are $1 per day. Have

A First-Class Bar in Connection.

Come one, come all. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. I or one of my clerks will meet all night trains. Thanking my friends for past favors and soliciting a continuance, I am

J. W. CARRIER.

LOST HORSE!

On Friday, January 19th, a Roan Horse about 15½ or 16 hands high, 7 years old, with foretop cut out and which has grown out about two inches long, right hind ankle scarred up from wire fence, good style horse and at a distance more like a boy than a roan. Got out of stable at Vaseline Casey county, Ky., and was traced up Indian creek to No. One, a station on the Green River Railroad.

I Will Pay Ten Dollars

To any one that will deliver the horse to Thomas Means, Middleburg, Ky. Information leading to his recovery will be thankfully received and suitably rewarded.

JOHN BONTA, JR., 95-4t Burgin, Ky.

DR. W. B. PENNY

Dentist.
Office South Side Main St., in office recently vacated by Dr. Lee F. Huffman, Stanford, Ky.

Stanford Female College.

J. M. HUBBARD, A. M., President.

Spring Session Tuesday, January 23d, 1894.

Full corps of Conservatory and Normal School teachers. Superior courses in Literature, Music and Art. Excellent boarding department. Catalogues and circulars furnished on application.

W. E. PERKINS,

Dealer in Oliver Chilled and Bucher & Gibbs' Imperial

P L O W S,

Double Shovel Plows, Plow Harness and

FIELD SEEDS.

I am the only authorized Agent in the East End of the county for Oliver Chilled REPAIRS. Beware of the bogus repairs that are offered by different parties.

W. E. PERKINS, Crab Orchard.

W. B. McKINNEY.

J. W. HOCKER.

—New Firm of—

McKINNEY & HOCKER,

(Successors to McKinney Bros.)

Dealers In Groceries, Hardware, Tin-Queens- Woodenware, &c.

NEW : GOODS : AND : NEW : PRICES !

We solicit your patronage and guarantee satisfaction. Come and see us at the old stand. Very Truly, McKinney & Hocker.

DR. S. G. HOCKER, DRUGGIST.

The Drug-Store Opposite the Myers House is the place to buy your

Drugs, School Supplies,

School Books, Glass, Paints, Oils, Spectacles and Sundries of all kinds, Liquors for Medical Purposes.

The Best Goods For The Least Money.

Call and see us.

DR. S. C. HOCKER, The Druggist.

White : Goods !

HAMBURGS,

Linen Edgings

Finest Assortment of New Goods.

Ever Shown in Stanford.

SEVERANCE & SON.

Are You Ready!

To make your winter of discontent glorious summer? If so invest your hard earned dollars in some stuff that we are now closing to make room for a magnificent spring stock, a part of which is now arriving.

ARE YOU COLD.

If so, don't remain so, but come and buy one of our cheap blankets or comforts. That old rusty hat. New ones like it. Off and buy one of ours. Selling now at prime cost. Don't go barefooted when you can buy odd lots of shoes from us at half price. That old underwear that has been patched so often; throw it in the rag bag and get something new, lower than was ever sold before. Lay aside those old patched pants and that old coat, the sleeve of which is worn out where you have wiped your nose so often, and come and get something at 33 per cent. less than value. Remember while we are closing all heavy goods, we are receiving daily new lines of

New Spring Stock,

White goods, Embroideries, Gingham, Percales, Dress Goods, Hosiery and everything new. Last, though not least, to the Ladies. Do not take the Grip and die for the want of a Cloak. We would rather give you one. The price shall not be in the way. Come now while we are in the humor.

HUGHES & TATE.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

Published Every Tuesday and Friday
$3 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE
When not so paid $2.00 will be charged.

K. C. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Train leaves Rowland at 7:00 a. m., returning at 5:30 p. m.

L. & N. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Mail train going North..... 12:30 p. m.
Express train " "..... 12:30 p. m.
Local train " "..... 12:30 p. m.
Local Freight " "..... 12:30 p. m.

The latter trains also carry passengers.
The above is calculated on standard time. Solar time is about 30 minutes faster.

QUEEN & CRESCENT ROUTE.

Going North trains pass Junction City as follows: Blue-Grass Vestibule starts 6 a. m. Vestibule Limited 3 p. m. Local 12:55 p. m. Florida Limited 2:45 a. m.
South-N. O. Vestibule 12:55 p. m. Florida Limited 11 p. m. Local 12:12 p. m. Blue-Grass Vestibule arrives 5:40 p. m.

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—[Latest United States Government Food Report.]

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO.,
108 Wall St., New York.

Falls Branch Jellico Coal Co.,
Miners and shippers of the GENUINE
Original Jellico Coal.

Try it. We are the sole agents for Stanford and Rowland. Office corner of Depot street and railroad crossing.
HIGGINS & WATTS.

A. S. PRICE,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office over McRoberts Drug Store in the new Owley Building. Stanford.

Dr. E. C. West's Nerve and Brain Treatment is sold under positive written guarantee, by authorized agents only, to cure Weak Memory; Loss of Brain and Nerve Power; Lost Manhood; Quinsies; Night Losses; Evil Dreams; Lack of Confidence; Nervousness; Lassitude; All Drains; Loss of Power of the Generative Organs in either sex, caused by over-exertion; Youthful Errors; or Excessive Use of Tobacco, Opium or Liquor, which soon lead to Misery, Consumption, Insanity and Death. By mail, $1 a box; 6 for $5; with written guarantee to cure or refund money. WEST'S NERVE AND BRAIN TREATMENT, a certain cure for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat. Pleasant to take. Small size discontinued; 4 oz. size, now 2 oz.; old 4 oz. size, now 2 oz. GUARANTEES issued only by

A. R. PENNY, Stanford, Ky.

John B. Castleman. A. G. Lanham

ROYAL
Insurance Company
OF LIVERPOOL.

BARBEE & CASTLEMAN
MANAGERS,
Commerce Building, Louisville

Agents throughout the South.

W. A. TRIBBLE, Local Agent,
STANFORD, KY.

SCRATCHED TEN MONTHS.

A troublesome skin disease caused me to scratch for ten months, and has been cured by a few days' use of

M. H. WOLFE, Upper Marlboro, Md.

SWIFT'S SPECIFIC

I was cured several years ago of white swelling in my leg by using

SWIFT'S SPECIFIC, and had no symptoms of return of the disease. Many prominent physicians attended me and all failed, but S. S. S. did the work.

PAUL W. KIRKPATRICK, Johnson City, Tenn.

Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free.

SWIFT SPECIFIC CO.,
Atlanta, Ga.

FOR A CLEAN—

Shave, Stylish Hair Cut,

Or a Nice, Refreshing Bath Go to

Jesse Thompson's Barber Shop

1 so agent for the Lexington Steam Laundry. The Best in the Country.

RIVALRY FOR OFFICE.

THE GRAND ARMY OF APPLICANTS
FOR PETTY POSTMASTERSHIPS.

Waiter Wellman Says the Federal Offices are a Source of Political Weakness Rather Than of Strength—Duties of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Maxwell.

[Special Correspondence.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—At the big government printing office they are hard at work upon the second volume of the "Official Register," or Blue Book. It is devoted wholly to the postoffice department, and it shows that there are in this service about 260,000 employees. In conversation with your correspondent today Postmaster General Bissell said that while this was a great army of men, representing one out of every 280 of our whole population, he was sure the number was not so great as it should be, and that in a few years the grand total would be over 300,000. The postal business of the country is growing faster than the population.

"When we consider," said the postmaster general, "that there are 70,000 postoffices in this country, it is easy to see that a total of 260,000 employees is not large. Think of the single offices, like New York and Chicago, that have well on toward 1,000 employees each, then of the very large number with several hundred each, and of the many offices that have in clerks and carriers a few scores or dozens each. The railway mail service, with its 8,000 employees, must not be forgotten, and since there must be at least one employee to every office, carriers of mail to all offices, etc., it is surprising that we are able to keep the number of employees lower than an average of four to the office. It must be remembered that each of our offices, taking the country as a whole, serves 1,000 people. Of course the small offices in the country do not serve anything like this number of people, but the average is brought up by the offices which serve 1,000,000 or even 2,000,000 people each, like the offices in New York, Chicago, Brooklyn, Philadelphia. Leaving all figures aside," concluded the postmaster general, "it is a satisfaction to know that we have the finest postal system in the world."

Twenty Thousand Changes.

If you want to see a most wonderful part of the great government machine, you should step into the office of Mr. Maxwell, the fourth assistant postmaster general. There are not many signs of activity save a large number of congressional and other callers. In fact, the office is as quiet as a church. But the wheels are in motion, and the well oiled guillotine is in steady operation. Every day about a hundred official heads drop into the basket as a result of the calm, matter of fact way in which General Maxwell takes up one large bundle of papers after another, looks them over and finally signs his name. These 100 decapitations are of Republican fourth class postmasters, who for course are succeeded by Democrats. For about eight months this has been going on, and in that time 20,000 Republican postmasters have given way to men of the other political faith.

Rivalry for a Petty Place.

These postmasters are the men who serve in the smaller offices of the country. Their salaries range from $1 to $999 a year. As soon as a postmaster's salary reaches $1,000 his office becomes presidential—that is, it is filled by direct appointment of the president, "by and with the advice and consent of the senate." It is significant of the magnitude and rapid growth of this country that about once a week some fourth class postoffice gets over the $999 limit and becomes presidential. A good many postmasters in this country get only $1, $2 or $3 a year compensation. They are, as a rule, little neighborhood offices kept in private houses out in the country.

General Maxwell tells your correspondent that the average of postmasters' salaries in the United States is not over $200 or $250 a year. Yet, as every one knows, the rivalry for these offices is just as keen as for the biggest plum in the gift of the president. General Maxwell ought to know, for he has settled 30,000 of these fights in the last eight months.

The average number of applicants for a postoffice is about 10, and the number of men who would like the appointment, but do not put their desires on record, is much greater. Some of the bitterest fights known to the department are over offices that do not pay more than $50 or $100 a year. Often it is a case of rivalry between storekeepers who want the advantage of having the postoffice in their establishments.

A Queer Case.

These postoffice fights show up a good deal of human nature, and some of it not of the best sort. Senator Brice of Ohio came across a queer case of this kind a few days ago. He sent to General Maxwell recommendation for a certain man for appointment to an office in his state. General Maxwell sent back word that this was all right, except that Senator Brice was already on record as recommending another man for the same office. If there is anything the business-like Mr. Brice prides himself on, it is that he does not make this blunder, common enough with more careless senators and representatives. So he marched straight to the postoffice department. There, sure enough, was a big bundle of papers concerning the postoffice in question tied up with red tape and indexed or briefed on the back. One of these indexes was, "Indorsed by Senator Brice." That seemed to settle it, and the case seemed hopeless when the packet was opened and a letter found therein with the senator's signature.

"Hold on a minute!" exclaimed the senator. "Let's see what I have signed my name to."

And in a second he turned to the fourth assistant postmaster general and showed him the following lines in the letter:

"Your request that I indorse you for the postoffice at — received. I cannot consistently do so, for I am on record in favor of another man."

From the word "cannot" the final syllable had been clumsily erased by a knife, while the phrase "on record" had by use of knife and pen been changed to read "not recorded."

Poor Human Nature.

The salary of the office which the applicant had endeavored to secure by this species of forgery was $75 a year.

General Maxwell explained that tampering with letters in this way to distort their meaning was a common occurrence. Senators and members receive applications from their constituents for indorsements for office, and of course in declining take occasion to soften the blow by some pleasant remark. Sometimes these letters are filed as indorsements in the hope that false returns will not be discovered, or words are changed, as in the Brice case, to make the writer appear to say what he had had no intention of saying in the hope that the matter would never be called to the attention of the writer of the letter, and that the office may be secured by means of the fraud.

As to the Political Effect.

The politicians who have had experience in managing campaigns say they believe the result of our national elections is often changed by postoffice disappointments. In the whole country fully 500,000 men are candidates for postoffice appointments whenever there is a change of administration. All but 40,000 or 50,000 of these are disappointed in their expectations. How many of the unsuccessful applicants, with their friends, fathers, sons, brothers, cousins, uncles, sons-in-law, fathers-in-law, brothers-in-law, grandfathers or grandsons, either openly or secretly, "knife" the party that "turned them down" at the next election the managing politicians say they do not know, but they imagine the proportion is large enough seriously to affect elections in close states.

It is becoming an axiom with the shrewdest politicians in the country that possession of the patronage is a source of weakness instead of strength to any party. When men talk of a party being able to maintain itself in power on account of its possession of the federal offices, they do not know what they are talking about. For every vote that is won by these means a half dozen are lost by virtue of disappointments.

WALTER WELLMAN.

Red Letter Hunting Days.

[Special Correspondence.]

DINGMAN'S FERRY, Pa., Jan. 18.—The other evening a number of men were sitting around the grocery store talking about hunting and fishing when the oldest man in the party—a man between 70 and 80 years of age—said:

"Talking about hunting, you ought to see the kind of hunting we had around here when I was a boy."

"Was it very good?" asked the grocer, to draw him out.

"Well, not so good as you might think," replied the old man, spitting playfully at the redhot stove, "because the game was so thick that you didn't have to hunt for it. It was a common thing to wake up in the morning and see a black bear sitting in the garden path eating gooseberries, if you didn't happen to shut the gate at night. Sometimes we didn't care to go out in the daytime when there was work to be done, and then we purposely left the gate open on moonlight nights to let the bears in. We could sit up stairs in the window and give them both barrels. I have frequently shot 10 or 12 bears in one night."

"What did you do with them?" asked the grocer.

"Used them for fertilizer mostly," replied the old man as he took a fresh chew of tobacco, "and mighty fine fertilizer they make, too, after they are nicely cut up and plowed under. But the bears were no thicker than the deer. I remember once when I was crossing the bridge up at Adams Hook one dark night that I fell head over heels over a deer that was taking a nap after a big drink of water. But that was nothing when they were so thick that we had to keep dogs to frighten them into the woods. One man who was pretty well off had some iron hounds sitting around the fields like scarecrows. That's the reason the hunting was no good. Even the hounds got so tired of seeing deer that they didn't pay any attention to them, and so they became worthless. Venison was so common that a man could not eat salt pork without being considered high toned. But when we wanted a fine day's sport we would go trolling for bluefish."

"But there are no bluefish in fresh water," observed the grocer. "Are you sure you didn't see your fish through blue spectacles?"

"Sure," replied the old man, with emphasis. "But how do you account for the bluefish?" asked the grocer.

"I can't account for them," said the old man, "any more than I can account for a shower of frogs. I don't try to account for anything in that line because it is mysterious and beyond me, but I caught bluefish in the Delaware in 1840, and I had a water spaniel trained to go out and bring in lobsters, and I guess I know what I'm talking about!"

The grocer, seeing he was mad, pacified him with a cigar, and the old man stopped talking and set about to have a good old fashioned smoke.

R. K. MUNKITTRICK.

Items of Interest from all over the State.

My wife had been helpless with rheumatism for several weeks and confined to her bed. In less than one week after using the Electropoise she was able to be out and go to church.

J. H. Hayes, Owensboro, Ky.
Since using the Electropoise I feel at least 20 years younger.
G. W. Flint, Skyline, Ky.
I believe the Electropoise to be the greatest invention of the age.
Miss Mattie McNary, Greenview, Ky.

The Electropoise has given perfect satisfaction in both cases, one neuralgia the other rheumatism, and the results have been perfectly wonderful.

Richard J. Whelan, Bardonia, Ky.
Thanks to the Electropoise for what it has done for me and my family. It has cured indigestion and liver troubles, besides giving almost immediate relief to toothache.
W. W. Willett, Carlisle, Ky.

I have used the Electropoise in my family from my mother-in-law 73 years old down to the baby one year old with the happiest results in all cases. Several of my neighbors have them and are well pleased. Everybody should have one.

F. M. Callahan, Verona, Ky.
To me the work of the Electropoise is a mystery—almost a miracle.
Rev. J. L. Rodgers, Danville, Ky.

The Electropoise has cured me of asthma and kidney trouble.
I. Vocum, Taylorsville, Ky.
I am wonderfully pleased with the Electropoise and would not be without it for any consideration. It has been a world of good for me already.

Mrs. Jonathan Reid, Knob Lick, Ky.
Money could not buy the Electropoise from me. It has given my wife wonderful relief from rheumatism. C. W. Wright, Campbellsville, Ky.

I regard the Electropoise as the wonder of the 19th century. My wife, though not yet well, is better than she has been for 15 years, having been a constant sufferer and confined to her bed with little prospect of ever being out, but is now up and about. H. B. Woodward, Hardyville, Ky.

Address DuBois & Webb, Norton Block, corner Fourth and Jefferson Sts., Louisville, Ky.

CANDIDATES

To be Voted for at the Primary, March 3rd.

J. B. PAXTON,

Is a candidate for the democratic nomination for County Attorney, subject to the Primary Election, March 3rd.

JOHN B. MERSHON

Is a Candidate for Jailor, subject to the action of the Democracy.

PETER HAMPTON,

Is a candidate for jailor, subject to the action of the democracy.

SAM M. OWENS,

Is a candidate for Sheriff of Lincoln county, subject to the action of the democratic primary. —

T. D. NEWLAND

Is a candidate for Sheriff of Lincoln county, subject to the action of the democratic primary.

T. J. HATCHER

Is a candidate for Jailor of Lincoln County and asks his friends not to commit themselves to any one else, as he's forced to stay at home and work. His candidacy is subject to the action of the Democratic party.

G. W. DEBORD

Is a Candidate for Jailor, subject to the action of the Democracy.

M. F. ELKIN,

Is a Candidate for Assessor, subject to the action of the democracy.

JNO. BRIGHT

Is a Candidate for Assessor, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

E. D. KENNEDY,

Is a candidate for re-election to the office of Assessor, of Lincoln County, subject to action of the democratic party.

W. L. DAWSON,

Is a candidate for jailor, subject to the action of the democracy.

JOHN BAILEY,

Is a candidate for jailor, subject to the action of the old Jeffersonian democracy.

WALLACE E. VARNON,

Is a candidate for re-election to the office of County Judge, subject to the action of democratic party.

JAMES W. GIVENS

Is a Candidate for County Judge of Lincoln, subject to the action of the Democracy.

JOHN M. JOHNSON

Is a Candidate for Assessor of Lincoln county subject to the action of the Democratic party.

J. A. GIVENS

Is a Candidate for Sheriff of Lincoln county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

DINK FARMER

Is a candidate for Jailor, subject to the action of the democratic party.

GEORGE B. COOPER,

Is a candidate for re-election to the office of County Clerk and will appreciate your support. Democratic primary Saturday, March 3, 1894.

FALL AND WINTER GOODS.

Goods Wanted and a Perfect Fit Guaranteed. Give me call.

H. & C. RUPLEY,

Is Boasting His

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

Electropoise

COMMERCIAL BLOCK MILLINERY!

Two doors above Post-Office. Always on hand

The Nobiest and Nicest Goods?

Can be had in the market. Prices lower than the lowest. Mourning goods a specialty. Call and examine before buying.

MARY DAVIS DUDDERAR,
Mrs. Kate Dudderar, Manager. Stanford, Ky.

Fruit Trees For Sale!

At our Fruit Farms and Nurseries one mile West of Kingsville, Lincoln county. We have as fine a stock of Fruit Trees as any man ever handled, ready for transplanting into orchard and garden this Fall. Orchards of Apples and Peaches will be assorted to suit customers at $10 per hundred. The trees are nice, the varieties the best. Everything needed to make home attractive and the children happy will be found here. For circulars address

J. A. McKee & Co., Kingsville, Ky.

Garrard: College.

English and Classical; For males and females,

Lancaster, : : Kentucky.

Next session begins Feb. 1, 1894. The course and teaching thorough, the buildings and grounds beautiful and rates reasonable. Young ladies boarded in the College; young gentlemen boarded in the town. For further particulars address the President.

MILTON ELLIOTT.

New Meat Shop.

We have opened on Depot Street a first-class Butcher Shop, where we will keep at all times the best meats that the country affords. We will handle nothing but the best and will

SELL FOR CASH ONLY,

As we can not keep books. Our customers will be served in the best style and we solicit the patronage of the public. We also buy good corn-fed cattle and hogs. ANDERSON CARR & CO., 88-90

Stanford, Ky.

NOTICE!

Mr. William Landgraf's employment as my agent for the sale of lands in the Swiss and German Colony at Ctenheim, Lincoln county, Ky., has ceased and MR. WM. H. SHER is now my agent therefor until such agency shall be revoked. All legal matters concerning the purchase and sale of such lands will be attended to by W. H. Miller, my attorney, of Stanford, Ky.

Jan. 26, 94. J. OTTENHEIMER.

Mrs. J. J. Kendall,

Stanford, Ky.

Practical CARPET WEAVER,

Has lately purchased the celebrated

Newcomb Fly Shuttle Loom,

and is prepared to do all kinds of Carpet and Rug Weaving. Fancy weaving on Shawls, Mattings, Etc. Call and examine my work. I guarantee first-class work at low prices.

86-3m

R. - ZIMMER,

Dealer in

Groceries, Candies,

Fancy Goods,

Fruits, &c.

Desires to thank you for your patronage during the year which is almost gone and asks a continuance during the coming year.

When Hungry try one of his

25 CTS MEALS

And you will certainly go back and try him again.

ELECTION NOTICE.

Notice is given that an election will be held on

Saturday, March 10, 1894,

In the Crab Orchard